

Company description

Our client is one of the world's leading companies in the HVAC supply industry. Headquarter of this corporate group is based in northern Germany with different subsidiaries all-over Germany. As part of a global group, it is important to sustainably expand the efficiency and sales of the German group. Therefore, we are exclusively looking for a

Chief Executive Officer (m/f/x) with a strong track record in optimizing high-performance sales and production units.

Main tasks

- Full accountability for the profit and loss of the German production facilities
- Optimization of the group's organizational structure and financial performance
- Streamlining and enhancing the production portfolio
- Establishment of a new production and logistics site to serve as the headquarters
- Driving a significant increase in operating margins

Requirements

- Business professional with technical expertise, or technical professional with solid business acumen
- Proven ability to enhance the efficiency and performance of a corporate group
- Experience working with indirect sales channels and customers both within and outside Germany
- Familiarity with lean production principles is advantageous
- Fluency in both written and spoken German and English

Benefits

- Attractive salary package, including bonus
- Company car
- Modern and future-oriented working environment

Do you feel addressed by this exciting position? Then contact us and send your (pdf) documents to our expert Christoph Morlo.

Contact via Mobile: +49 (0)172 1312830

Contact via email: christoph.morlo@bollmann-executives.de